OtterBox Symmetry Clear MagSafe Apple iPhone 16 - clear

The OtterBox Symmetry Series protective cover is designed for those seeking reliable protection for their cell phone. It is crafted from thermoplastic elastomer (TPE) and features a polycarbonate layer for durability. This back cover boasts an ultra-sleek design that complements the phone's aesthetic while maintaining functionality. The cover supports wireless charging and features raised edges to safeguard the screen and camera from potential drops and scratches.

With built-in magnets that snap securely and DROP+ technology providing drop protection, this case ensures that devices remain safe in various conditions. The tactile buttons enhance usability, while the built-in anchors offer attachment options. Crafted with 40% recycled plastic, this product provides protection and contributes to a more sustainable environment.
